Name of nominee:

Alexis Liberovsky

Parish/Institution/City, State:

Saint Sergius Chapel/OCA chancery

Hierarch's Signature of approval:

Note: Keep information limited to the space provided on this page—be concise

Education:

- Saint Sergius Orthodox Theological Institute, Paris, France
- Saint Vladimir's Seminary, Yonkers, NY
- Modern Archives Institute at the National Archives, Washington, DC
- Historical and Archival Institute of the Russian State University for the Humanities in Moscow as part of a church archivists training course

Relevant Professional Experience:

- OCA Archivist since 1988
- Secretary or Director of OCA Department/Office of History & Archives since 1988
- Recording Secretary of the Metropolitan Council since 2010
- Member of the Metropolitan Council since 2022
- Member of the OCA Statute Revision Task Force 2013-15 that drafted new OCA Statute, adopted at 18th AAC in 2015
- consultant to OCA Commission for Dialogue with ROCOR in 2010
- longtime secretary of OCA Canonization Commission
- Secretary of Joint OCA/Antiochian Canonization Commission for glorification of St Raphael in 2000

Personal Statement I am seeking reelection to serve a second term on the Metropolitan Council. Born and raised in Montreal, Canada, I have been a lifelong member of the Metropolia/OCA. I have lived in the US for over four decades. As OCA Archivist for nearly four decades and a participant in drafting the new OCA Statute adopted in 2015, as Recording Secretary of the Metropolitan Council since 2010 and as MC member since 2022, I am thoroughly informed and immersed on a daily basis in the nuances of ecclesial structure, the history and functioning of the Church's administrative bodies. This knowledge and experience provides a strong background for working as a member of the Metropolitan Council. Experience has shown that my value to the MC has been in providing input of institutional memory for its deliberations and decisions. I would be honored to continue serving as a member of the Metropolitan Council.
